

The Little Book Of Indifferent Ignorance

A guide for those social encounters when thinking through your opinions just won't do

Compiled by Francesca Burke

Volume I

Lock up all drug addicts.

That will remove their addiction, stop all dealers from trading and prevent farmers from relying on the sale of drugs for their livelihoods!

Refuse the homeless a place to sleep.

Because in doing so, we remove the cause of their homelessness.

Christmas for Christians ONLY.

The ones who never eat pork or misuse the Lord's name and always honour their parents!

To halt Islamic State, ban Islam.

Just like how we all agreed to halt the IRA by banning Christianity.

Shoot illegal Immigrants.

Thus stopping them from fleeing their war-torn country of origin!

Scrap the Human Rights Act.

As a human, I, personally, no longer want to be treated as a human because I, personally, cannot stand foreign people entering my country. Indeed, I, personally, cannot stand all people who are different from me or who have different ideals. I, personally, do not see them as human so do not agree that they deserve the same rights that I am selflessly giving up.

Ban the gays.

The public requires protection from contagious illnesses such as homosexuality, AIDS, and the desire for all men to wear women's attire. Banning the gays from all public areas will guarantee the safety of those of us who have chosen the right lifestyle.

My opinion is correct.

Because I thought of it. Or I heard it from someone else and liked it. But it's mine, so it's right. It's definitely more right than yours, which is wrong because you thought of it and I didn't.

I am justified in being rude about a celebrity I have never met.

Because now her job has landed her in the media spotlight, she is not a human being but an object that exists solely for me to discuss in a jealous and insecure rage.

As a woman, I think feminism
isn't necessary.

Because everybody is equal in every society worldwide, regardless of their gender!

Stop all benefits.

The economy will be thriving within a week.

Lower all taxes.

The economy will be thriving within a week.

Elect Nigel Farage.

Fix everything that's wrong with the UK.

Elect Boris Johnson.

Fix everything that's wrong with the UK.

Vote to leave the European Union.

Fix everything that's wrong with the UK.

Vote to leave the United Kingdom.

Fix everything that's wrong with Scotland.

The first volume of

The Little Book of Indifferent Ignorance

is a pocket-sized book perfect for those days when thinking through your opinions before expressing them is just too difficult.

The Little Book of Indifferent Ignorance

is your trusty companion for those awkward social encounters when you haven't researched or considered your views and wish to instead repeat the views expressed by the tabloid press, or people who live underneath rocks.
